Early Binding Decision Acceptance

Acceptance of Offer

As an Early Binding Decision applicant admitted to Florida State University College of Law, I fully accept Florida State University College of Law's offer of admission for the JD entering class.

Withdrawals & Disclosures

I understand that I must fully withdraw all existing law school applications, regardless of their status, and cease submission of any future applications.

List all schools presently holding an application from you and its current application status.

Acknowledgement

I confirm by signing this agreement that I have contacted all law school where I hold an application and notified them of my official withdrawal from consideration or acceptance, along with my intent to enroll at Florida State Law under the Early Binding Decision agreement submitted with my application.

Failure to do so may result in the revocation of this offer as well as a contract breach notification to the Law School Admission Council.
