

Comparative Constitutional Law
Professor David Landau
Spring 2012

First Assignment:

For Monday, 1/9, please read the excerpts from the US, German, and Canadian abortion cases, as well as the Tushnet article on the Possibilities of Comparative Constitutional Law. Both are up on the course website under assignments in the week 1 folder. The Scheppelle reading, also in that folder, is optional -- you may want to glance at it for a quick historical overview of comparative constitutionalism.
