

Elder Law
Professor Charlee Taylor
Spring 2012

First Assignment: Welcome to Elder Law! There is no reading assignment for our first class, on Monday, January 9. During that class, we will discuss the course policies and watch a video to get you acquainted with some incapacity issues your elderly clients may face. Have an uplifting activity planned for after class to counteract the effect the video may have on your mood. I'm looking forward to spending the semester with you!
