What to Do When You Are Done With Your Exam

1. In Exam4, click 'End Exam', and then click 'End Exam Now.'
2. When prompted 'Are you sure you want to end your exam now?' click the checkbox next to 'Confirm' and then the 'OK, end exam' button.
3. Click File and Save Options, and then click 'Submit Electronically.' After several seconds a dialog should be displayed which says, 'Your file has been stored on the server.' Click the OK button. Verify the number of lines submitted looks correct, and click the OK button. Click the Close button.
 - a. If a message 'Error 12: No response. Please check your network connection and try again' is displayed follow the procedure 'Logging into the Wireless Network and Resubmitting your Exam' listed later in this document and continue with step 8 after your file has been successfully submitted electronically.
4. Exit Exam4 by clicking 'File and Save Options' and selecting Exit. When prompted "Are you sure you have followed all instructions ..." click the checkbox next to 'I'm sure' and click the 'Exit Exam4' button.
5. Complete the post-exam checklist on the examination packet. Write your BAGS number (or other identifier as announced by the Proctor) and course title on your examination packet.

Logging into the Wireless Network and Resubmitting your Exam

Some laptops will disconnect from the wireless network while you are taking your exam. If you receive the message 'Error 12: No response. Please check your network connection and try again' when submitting your exam electronically the following procedure will usually allow a successful submittal.

1. Click the large X button located in the upper right hand corner of the dialog box displaying the 'Error 12: No response ...' error.
2. Exit Exam4 by clicking 'File and Save Options' and selecting Exit. When prompted 'Are you sure you have followed all instructions ...' click the checkbox next to 'I'm sure' and click the 'Exit Exam4' button.
3. Open up a web browser and login to the College of Law Wireless Network.
4. Start Exam4 by clicking the Exam4 icon on your desktop.
