THANKS TO OUR 2016-2017 DONORS

Gifts to Florida State University College of Law provide critical support for students, faculty and academic programs. This Annual Report is one way of expressing our appreciation for all gifts received between July 1, 2016 and June 30, 2017. Gifts received between July 1, 2017 and June 30, 2018 will be recognized in the 2019 issue of Florida State Law.

Thank you so much! We hope that our progress over the years has shown that we are putting your contributed dollars to good use.

We strive to produce a complete and accurate report. Please call any errors or omissions to the attention of:

Dear Alumni and Friends:

This was a year of great success for the law school. The reputation of our outstanding students, faculty and alumni continues to blossom. Most importantly, we have the best job placement rate in Florida and one of the best in the region.

Private fundraising makes a critical difference at the law school, helping us to attract and to support the best students and faculty.

TOTAL GIFTS AND PLEDGES

Putting annual giving and larger gifts together, we raised a cash total of $1,216,360 and unamortized pledges in the amount of $854,438, for a grand total of $2,070,798.

ANNUAL GIVING FROM ALUMNI

This past year, 30.38% of our alumni made cash gifts to the law school. Based on the latest American Bar Association data, this level of participation should keep us within the nation’s top 10 law schools in terms of alumni giving rate. This level of alumni contributions enriches the life of the school and sends a powerful signal about the enthusiasm our alumni have for the school.

GIVING FROM STUDENTS

This past year, 85.13% of our students participated in the Student Give Back Campaign. Our student enthusiasm and generosity bodes well for the future. They are blazing the trail for us all!

LARGER GIFTS

This past year, we received cash payments on Larger Gifts totaling $182,625 and unamortized pledges on Larger Gifts in the amount of $854,438, for a grand total of $1,037,063. The “Cash Gifts By Level” portion of this report includes only cash payments made during the fiscal year, even if they were but a portion of a larger gift. Under the heading of “Recent Larger Gifts,” we outline the larger gift commitments that we received in the 2016-2017 fiscal year.

We are deeply grateful to everyone who has contributed to our many successes. We shall continue to do our best to pay great dividends on the dollars you have invested in our school.

Sincerely,

Erin O’Hara O’Connor, Dean
ENDOWED GIFT OPPORTUNITIES

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

Our single greatest need from private giving is endowed scholarships. To continue to serve our mission of providing access to all, including those from families of modest means, we will need significantly more scholarships. Scholarships are awarded according to the intent of the donor and may be based on merit, need or other factors. The endowed scholarship would be named after you or your designee.

Minimum gift needed to create an endowed scholarship: $25,000 (may be paid over time)

Courtney Cahill

Courtney Cahill, the Donald Hinkle Professor, is a national expert on sexuality and the law. A professorship helped Florida State recruit Cahill to the College of Law.

ENDOWED PROFESSORSHIPS AND CHAIRS

According to a 2015 study of law faculty scholarly impact, our faculty is #1 in Florida and #39 nationally. Our faculty members are being recruited by some of the nation’s most prominent law schools. Endowed professorships and chairs provide salary supplements based on merit. Faculty members are appointed for five-year terms, with renewal contingent on continued scholarly productivity. Professorships and chairs give us the merit money we need to retain our top faculty. The professorship or chair would be named after you or your designee.

Minimum gift needed to endow a professorship: $200,000 (may be paid over time)
Minimum gift needed to endow a chair: $1,000,000 (may be paid over time)

The Edward Ball Eminent Scholar Chair in International Law has been instrumental in keeping Frederick M. Abbott at Florida State. He is highly regarded for his work in international intellectual property rights and global economic issues.

---

Nikki Bhavsar, class of 2019, is the recipient of the Karlinsky Family Endowed Scholarship.

ENDOWMENTS FOR EXCELLENCE

Endowments for excellence are used, at the discretion of the law school, for purposes such as student scholarships, faculty incentives, general discretionary dollars and funding for co-curricular activities including Law Review, Trial Team, and Moot Court. The endowment for excellence would be named after you or your designee.

Minimum gift needed to create an endowment for excellence: $25,000 (may be paid over time)

Courtney Cahill

The Edward Ball Eminent Scholar Chair in International Law has been instrumental in keeping Frederick M. Abbott at Florida State. He is highly regarded for his work in international intellectual property rights and global economic issues.

ENDOWMENTS FOR PARTICULAR PROGRAMS

Private philanthropy has helped us take many of our existing programs to a new level of excellence. Our award-winning Moot Court and Trial Teams benefit from private contributions to supplement the dollars available to them for purposes such as traveling to regional and national competitions. Our Public Interest Law Center, which includes the Children’s Law Clinic, the Family Law Clinic and the Veterans Legal Clinic, relies on private contributions to help pay for some of the expenses involved in training students to provide effective legal services to the under-represented. An important goal of the law school is to raise substantial endowments to support special programs and co-curricular organizations. Some programs simply would not exist at the law school but for the generous support of our alumni.

Minimum gift needed to create an endowment to benefit a particular program: $25,000 (may be paid over time)

DONOR RECOGNITION

We are delighted to recognize scholarships, professorships and other targeted gifts by naming them in honor of the donor or the donor’s designee. In addition, we are pleased to acknowledge inter vivos gifts of $200,000 or more with an oil portrait of the donor or the donor’s designee that will be displayed in a prominent place at the law school. The Advocacy Center and the renovated spaces in Roberts Hall give us many rooms to name to thank donors for gifts ranging from $25,000 to $5 million.
RECENT LARGER GIFT COMMITMENTS

We would like to specially thank those of you who made a larger gift commitment between July 1, 2016, and June 30, 2017. These gifts make it possible to continue the dynamic advancement of the academic programs and reputation of the law school.

$100,000 TO $999,999

An anonymous donor has made a $500,000 gift to support scholarships to attract highly qualified students to the law school. $450,000 of the gift is deferred and $50,000 is a cash gift.

$50,000 TO $99,999

The Wayne and Patricia Hogan Family Foundation has made a pledge of $50,000 to support the FSU Friends Opportunity Scholarship, which will provide scholarships to juris doctor students who are from groups historically under-represented in the legal profession. Wayne and Patricia Hogan, who live in Jacksonville, and he is president of Terrell Hogan, Wayne specializes in all areas of personal injury law.

Pensacola attorney Terence A. (Terry) Gross ('79) has made a deferred gift of $50,000 to supplement the Terence A. Gross Diversity Enhancement Scholarship he previously established with gifts totaling $100,000. The income generated from the endowment is used to support law school students who are from groups historically under-represented in the legal profession. Terry is a partner with Gross & Schuster, P.A., and his areas of practice include personal injury and wrongful death litigation. Terry’s son Rhett ('12) and his son Tyler ('14) are associates with Gross & Schuster, P.A.

Thanks to James N. (Jim) McConnaughey ('69) and Steven A. (Steve) Rissman ('72), the Florida Workers’ Compensation Institute has made a cash gift of $50,000 to support the online component of the law school’s Juris Master degree program. The online component of the master’s degree will provide on-the-job training for non-lawyer professionals who bump up against regulatory and other legal challenges. In 2013, the Workers’ Compensation Institute partnered with the law school to present a continuing legal education program, Florida’s New Expert Opinion Evidence Standard, at the law school and the Institute donated all of the profits from the event, $27,262.50, to the law school.

FSU President John Thrasher ('72) and his wife, Jean Thrasher, have made a pledge of $50,000 to support the FSU Friends Opportunity Scholarship, which will provide scholarships to juris doctor students who are from groups historically under-represented in the legal profession. Each recipient of a scholarship shall be known as an FSU Friends Opportunity Scholar. Thrasher assumed the university presidency in November 2014.

Cecelia Bonifay ('84) has made a deferred gift of $50,000 to support the Cecelia Bonifay Moot Court Endowed Scholarship she previously established with a $100,000 cash gift. The income generated from the endowment is used to award at least one scholarship each year to a law student who participates in Moot Court and is in financial need. Cecelia is a shareholder in Akerman’s Orlando office, where she chairs the firm’s Land Use and Sustainable Development Practice Group.

David R. Slaton ('93) and his wife, Cristina Z. Slaton, have made a deferred gift of $50,000 to establish the David R. and Cristina Z. Slaton Endowed Scholarship. The income generated from the endowment will be used to award at least one scholarship each year to recruit a top student to the law school with demonstrated financial need. David works at the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation in Tallahassee.

$25,000 TO $49,999

David Varet ('12) and Middle Road Foundation made a cash gift of $40,000 to support the law school’s emerging program in professionalism. Middle Road Foundation previously established the Middle Road Foundation Endowment for Excellence at the law school with gifts totaling $150,000.

Washington, D.C. attorney Brian D. O’Neill (’71) and his wife, Bonnie R. O’Neill, have made a pledge of $35,000 to create the Brian D. and Bonnie R. O’Neill Endowment for Excellence. The income distributed from the endowment shall be used, at the discretion of the law school, for purposes such as student scholarships, faculty incentives, general discretionary dollars, and funding for co-curricular activities such as Law Review, Trial Team and Moot Court. In recognition of their commitment, the law school has named a faculty office the Brian D. and Bonnie R. O’Neill Faculty Office. Brian is a partner with Van Ness Feldman. He focuses his practice in the energy area.

Winter Haven attorney John G. Wood, Jr. (’77) has made a pledge of $30,000 to create the James Madison Institute Scholarship. Each year, a scholarship shall be awarded to a student at the law school who has demonstrated a commitment to the principles espoused by the James Madison Institute, which include limited government, economic freedom, federalism and individual liberty coupled with individual responsibility. In recognition of John’s commitment, the law school has named a faculty office the John G. Wood, Jr. Faculty Office. John served in the Florida House of Representatives for eight years (his final term ended in 2016) and he is the CEO of John Wood Enterprises.

Matthew Foster (’94) has pledged $25,000 to establish the Mock Trial Coaches’ Endowment. The income distributed from the endowment shall be used at the discretion of the Mock Trial Team for ordinary and customary expenses, including travel and entertainment. Additionally, the fund will establish the Matthew K. Foster Best 3L Mock Trial Team Member Award to be conferred annually at the Mock Trial Team banquet. Matt practices personal injury law at Brooks, LeBoeuf, Bennett, Foster & Gwartney, P.A. in Tallahassee. Matt also serves as an adjunct professor of Trial Practice at the law school and coaches the Mock Trial Team. Matt has chosen to honor Professor Ruth Stone with his gift by naming a faculty office after her.

Patrick Kinni has pledged $25,000 to create the Mock Trial Coaches’ Endowment. The income distributed from the endowment shall be used at the discretion of the Mock Trial Team for ordinary and customary expenses, including travel and entertainment. Additionally, the fund will establish the Patrick T. Kinni Best 2L Mock Trial Team Member Award to be conferred annually at the Mock Trial Team banquet. Patrick works in the General Counsel’s Office at Blueprint Intergovernmental Agency. In addition, he teaches Civil Pre-Trial Practice as an adjunct professor and coaches the Mock Trial Team. Patrick has chosen to honor Professor Garrett R. Foster with his gift by naming a faculty office after him.

Nason, Yeager, Gerson, White & Lioce, P.A., The Florida Bar Tax Section, Richard Comiter, and many family and friends have made cash gifts totaling $32,063 to establish the Domenick R. Lioce Scholarship. Each year, the scholarship shall be awarded to a student at the law school who has outstanding academic credentials, earned an undergraduate degree in accounting and is interested in having a career in tax law. Lioce (’79) was a tax partner with the Nason, Yeager, Gerson, White & Lioce law firm of Palm Beach Gardens, as well as a past president of The Florida Bar Tax Section, the Palm Beach Tax Institute and the American Association of Attorney/CPAs.
