FLORIDA STATE LAW ALUMNUS NAMED
ASSISTANT DEAN FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS

TALLAHASSEE— Janeia R. Daniels has been named Assistant Dean for Student Affairs at Florida State University College of Law. The December 2003 Florida State Law graduate will be tasked with a wide range of student support and outreach programs, including academic support, placement and financial aid.

Daniels, who received her Bachelor of Science in Public Relations from Florida A&M University, clerked for the Honorable Philip J. Padovano of the First District Court of Appeal before becoming an associate at Meyer and Brooks, P.A. She also served as an adjunct professor at Florida State Law, teaching a seminar for students in state and federal judicial internships. She is an active member of the Tallahassee Bar Association, the Tallahassee Barristers Association and The Florida Bar.

“Janeia will be an exciting addition to our administration and we are delighted she is joining us,” said Dean Don Weidner. “As a student at Florida State Law, Janeia was a star, especially on Moot Court. She took us all by storm!”
