

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE of LAW

November 2006

CONTACT:

Dean Don Weidner
850-644-3071; dweidner@law.fsu.edu
www.law.fsu.edu

MOCK TRIAL TEAM ON TOP OF THEIR GAME AT AFTL COMPETITION

TALLAHASSEE— The Mock Trial Team from Florida State University College of Law took first place in this year's E. Earle Zehmer Mock Trial Competition, sponsored by Academy of Florida Trial Lawyers. The competition was held in November in West Palm Beach. The top team included advocates Conti Moore and Karlyn Hylton and their dedicated witnesses, Brandy Hance and Nathan Prince.

Winston Taitt, Mary Will, Alan Nash and Scott Seagle and their dedicated witness, Todd Kaweck, advanced to the semi-finals as one of the final four teams at the competition. Florida State was the only school with two teams advancing to the semi-finals.

The teams were coached by Tallahassee attorneys Dean LeBoeuf ('81), partner with Brooks, LeBoeuf, Bennett, Foster & Gwartney, P.A. and Maria Santoro, Administrative Partner in the Tallahassee office of George Hartz.

Left to right: Coach Dean LeBoeuf, advocate Conti Moore, Coach Maria Santoro, advocate Karlyn Hylton, dedicated witness Brandy Hance, and dedicated witness Nathan Prince.

###