FLORIDA STATE NOMINATES 24 GRADUATES TO ORDER OF THE COIF

TALLAHASSEE— Twenty-four 2006 Florida State University College of Law graduates have been nominated to the Florida State Chapter of The Order of the Coif, the only national legal honor society in the United States.

Graduating seniors who have completed at least 75 percent of their studies in graded courses and who rank among the top 10 percent of all graduating seniors in the school are eligible for nomination. The Florida State University College of Law holds one of the 77 chapters of the Coif in the United States. The Order of the Coif, which originated in England during the medieval period, is an honorary scholastic society that aims to encourage excellence in legal education.
