

CONGRATULATIONS!

The Florida State College of Law Moot Court Team claimed first place at the Twenty-Ninth Annual Irving R. Kaufman Memorial Securities Law Moot Court Competition held March 5-8 at Fordham Law School in New York City. The winning team was composed of Keisha Rice and Christian Turner, who were coached by Professor Barbara Banoff (Standing). Rice also won the prize for Best Oralist. The competition examines the legal issues in federal securities law. The competition is limited to 32 teams.
