

LILLICH LECTURE SERIES

The Lillich Lecture series honors Professor Richard B. Lillich. Professor Lillich was the first holder of the Ball Eminent Scholar Chair at The Florida State University College of Law. He is known worldwide for his work in human rights law and international claims and investment.

The 2003-2004 Lillich Lecturer, David D. Caron, a C. William Maxeiner Distinguished Professor of Law at University of California at Berkeley, presented: "The Search for Practical Justice: The Work of the United Nations Compensation Commission for Claims Arising out of the 1991 Gulf War." The text of Professor Caron's presentation appears in this Volume.

The 2004-2005 Lillich Lecturer, Philip Alston, Professor and Director of the Center for Human Rights and Global Justice at New York University School of Law, presented: "Reforming the UN Human Rights Commission: Moving Towards Member State Accountability." The text of this presentation will appear in Volume 15:1.
