83 Margaret Street, London W1N 7HB, UK.

The El Salvador committee for Human Rights was organized in 1981 in response to the need for a source of information in the UK on the human rights situation in El Salvador, and in order to raise funds for refugees and displaced persons. ESCHR published EL Salvador Report for two and a half years. In early 1984, in response to events in Central America, it broadened its work to cover the region as a whole, and joined with the Guatemala Committee for Human Rights to publish Central America Report.

FEDEFAM was founded in January 1981, in San Jose, Costa Rica, during the first Latin American Congress of Relatives of the Detained-Disappeared. FEDEFAM's objectives are: (1) to rescue alive the detained-disappeared who are kept in clandestine prisons; (2) to bring those responsible for these crimes to justice; (3) to promote the adoption of national and international legal norms which will define forced disappearance as a crime against humanity; and (4) to secure the return of the children of the detained-disappeared to their legitimate homes. To date, FEDEFAM numbers 21 associations across 14 countries in Latin America.
