PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL
PURSUANT TO RULE 60(b)(6)

Rule 60(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, allows, "upon such terms as are just," a party to be relieved from a final judgment. Rule 60(b)(6) permits a Court to allow such relief for "any...reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment."

A final judgment has been entered in favor of Beatrice Foods Co. (Beatrice). Plaintiffs are entitled to be relieved from this judgment because of Beatrice's wide-spread discovery abuses and destruction of evidence. Accordingly, plaintiffs hereby move for relief of the judgment against them in accordance with Rule 60(b)(6).
